

EARLY SPRING

Did you know that our plants can also be kept indoors? In early spring, it's often still too cold to place the harvest vegetables outside. Give them a nice spot in your kitchen or on the windowsill – they'll keep growing happily there!

